Introduction

Joseph Friend was the fifth son of John Friend Sr. (1728 to aft. 1808). Joseph was probably born in 1764 near present day Paw Paw, WV. Joseph traveled with his father to Western Maryland and settled in what became the Friendsville, MD area. Joseph Friend married Sarah Green about 1795 and together raised seven children. Sarah Green was probably born in Monongahela (Preston) County, VA in 1777. As a child, Sarah survived one of the last Indian attacks of the time. Sarah's father (John Green) perished in the attack and her mother and sister were taken into captivity. Although wounded, Sarah managed to survive. Joseph Friend and Sarah Green would live and die in the Friendsville area. There are no gravestones marking a final resting place for either Joseph or Sarah, however they and their descendents have left an indelible impression on Friendsville and Garrett County.

We have attempted to outline the recorded history of Joseph Friend, Sarah Green and their descendents. Personal histories, lands deed, wills, military records, photographs and US Census records have been included in this text. We should point out that three of Joseph and Sarah's sons were only briefly outlined in this book. Andrew Coleman Friend, Josiah Green Friend, William Edmundson Friend and their children will be featured in greater detailed in three separate books.

It is our goal to preserve this history before it is lost to time. We have spent countless hours reconstructing families from multiply recorded sources. The information used here, although thoroughly checked, may still contain unintentional errors for which we truly apologize. We openly encourage additional information and corrections to this text.
