Introduction

William Edmundson Friend was the sixth son of Joseph Friend and Sarah Green Friend. William would learn the trade as Blacksmith and gun making from his father Joseph Friend<sup>1</sup> and would pass this legacy of metal working to several of his sons. William Edmundson Friend married Susanna (Susannah) Elizabeth Nusz in Monongalia County, VA., June 5, 1831. William and Susanna lived and died in the Friendsville area. Together with their ten children, William and Susanna would have a decided impact on the Friendsville area. William joined the Union Army at the age of 55, serving in Company D of the 3rd Regiment Potomac Home Brigade, Maryland Infantry with two of his sons (Winfield Scott Friend and Benjamin Franklin Friend) as well as a son in law (Francis A. Friend). Francis Marion Friend and William E Friend Jr., two more of William's sons, would also serve in the Union Army during the war. William and Susanna passed away and were Burial in the Steele Cemetery in Friendsville, MD along with five of their children.

We have attempted to outline the recorded history of William Edmundson Friend and his family. Personal histories, letters, photographs, lands deed, wills, military records and US Census records have been included in this text. It is our goal to preserve the family history of William Edmundson Friend before it is lost to time. As with our previous books on the Friend family, we have spent countless hours reconstructing this family history from multiple recorded sources. Although thoroughly checked, there may be unintentional errors, for which we truly apologize. We openly encourage additionally information and corrections to this text.

e. Notes on William Edmondson Friend

1. Book 2: PORTRAIT AND BIOGRAPHICAL RECORD; (hand written note: 6th Cong. District, MD) (no date)

(no page #) William Edmondson, son of Joseph and Sarah Friend and grandson of Old John Friend, was born at Selbysport, MD., circa 1807, and died at Friendsville, circa 1871. He married in Monongalia County, VA., 5 June 1831, Sarah <sup>15</sup>, daughter of Jacob Nusz (b.c. 1759 ; d. 25 July, 1851) and Phoebe, his wife (b.c. 1772; d. 6 June 1860), and granddaughter of Jacob Nusz and Elizabeth, his wife. The parent and grandparents of Sarah (Susannah) Nusz immigrated to Virginia from the Rhine Valley as early as 1783.

Issue of William Edmondson Friend and Sarah (Susannah), his wife, include Francis Marion (b.c. 1834; m. first 5 February, 1863, Elizabeth Cuppett; m. second, Mrs. Almira Cuppett Herring; m. third, Catherine Lewis) Mary Ann (b. 19 April, 1837; m. first, 24 August, 1859, Francis Albanus Friend; d. 7 August, 1923), William Edmondson (b.c. 1841; m. first, Nancy Jane Jenkins; m. second, Rachel Jenkins; m. third, Sarah Cunningham), Winfield Scott (b. 24 August, 1843; m. Ellen Loughrey), Augustine (b.c. 1845), Margaret (b.c. 1852; d.c 1878), Joseph Green (b.c. 1855; m. Anne Lewis) and Oliver Cromwell (b.c. 1857; m. Susanna Fike).

William Edmondson Friend has been termed a modern Tubal Cain. The Rev. D.A. Friend wrote of him, "He was a skilled worker in brass and copper, and iron and steel, and from his factory which was built on the East side of the (Youghiogeny) river ... he turned out many kinds of edged tools, such as axes, hatchets, drawknives, etc., but his special line of work was the manufacture of the finest kind of citizen's rifles that could be made by the hands of man, and often mounted with silver and brass mountings until they shine, and in my boyhood days I have stood by and watched him as he would be proving one of his new rifles, and he would fasten it in a vise that it might be absolutely steady, and fire at a target fifty steps away, and he would change and adjust the sights of that gun until it would drive the center at every shot, before was allowed to leave his shop. This man was a real genius, and in his best days would always have one or more journeymen working under him to learn the trade. "

William Edmondson Friend was survived many years by his widow, Sarah (Susannah) Nusz Friend, who died in 1893. The inscription on her tombstone, which indicates that she died several years later, is incorrect. The writer, her great grandson, was present at her funeral rites, held in the Friendsville Christian Church.

(page 694): William E. father of B. F. Friend, was born near the site of Friendsville in 1807, and spent most of his life in that neighborhood. He was a son of Joseph Friend, who had accompanied his parents from Oldtown (near Cumberland) to this district in his boyhood, and here was reared to
